THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS... It's surprising, but most people all over the world visualize the State of Hawaii as one island comprised mostly of Honolulu and Waikiki Beach... Nothing could be further from reality.

Hawaii is actually an archipelago of eight major islands located in the mid-Pacific. True... Oahu, where Honolulu is located is considered the major island... but to fully understand and enjoy all of Hawaii you must go further than Oahu... to the "Neighbor Islands."

It is on the Neighbor Islands that you find "the real Hawaii." This is why Tauck Tours has planned eight days here. These are days of relaxed tranquil beauty... away from the fast pace of Honolulu but still surrounded by the convenience of fine foods and lavish Polynesian-accented resort hotels. The evenings are prefaced by golden sunsets of rare beauty, and at each island, you are entertained by native Hawaiians who bring to you a touch of their culture that at one time existed throughout all the islands.

With Tauck you will have eight unequalled days to absorb the true tropical paradise that still exists in the Neighbor Islands. We have included the best of the Neighbor Islands, of Molokai, Hawaii, Maui and Kauai to give you a comfortable, well balanced program of sightseeing, recreation and leisure.

OAHU — "The Gathering Place," is only the third largest island, but it has over three-quarters of Hawaii's population. On the southern shore is Honolulu, the Capital City and famed Waikiki Beach.

MOLOKAI — "The Friendly Isle," a unique introduction to the gentle rhythms of South Seas life. Many Hawaiians here still exist in the fashion of their ancestors. Days are spent in a carefree manner, and nights passed in a mood of relaxed tranquility.

HAWAII — "The Big Island," is almost equal the size of all the other islands combined. It is the newest island and the one after which the entire chain was named. The lava flow of its active volcanoes, Mauna Loa and Kilauea are ever changing the island's topography causing world-wide geological interest.

MAUI — "The Valley Island," is an island of contrasts. Here, you find the great dormant volcano, Haleakala... the beautiful Iao Valley, quaint Lahaina and Kaanapali Beach with its magnificent resort hotels and Royal Kaanapali Golf Course.

KAUAI — "The Garden Isle," is covered with lush tropical flora. Because of its unusual beauty, Kauai has been chosen for filming many motion pictures. Spectacular Waimea Canyon and Mt. Waialeale are located here... and to the north is the beautiful Hanalei Valley and the Na Pali Cliffs, still an uninhabited part of the Islands.

In The Finest Tauck Tradition

The story of your vacation...13 days

With today's jet service you can fly to the Hawaiian Islands in less than a day from every major city in the United States at very reasonable rates. Many flights are now non-stop providing a new convenience for Hawaii-bound travelers. (Air information and round-trip rates from major cities to Honolulu—see page 14.)

First Day—You arrive in Honolulu this afternoon. Hawaiian girls with flower leis meet you and extend the traditional Hawaiian "aloha" ... a warm and colorful greeting of friendship. A driver will be waiting to take you to the ROYAL HAWAIIAN HOTEL where your tour director will contact you upon arrival. The Royal Hawaiian is in the heart of Waikiki Beach. You will stay in main building or tower ocean-front rooms with a magnificent view of Waikiki and the azure Pacific. Dinner this evening is in the Surf Room.

Take a moment before retiring and look at the moon reflecting on the blue South Pacific as it silhouettes Diamond Head, Hawaii's famous landmark, and then sleep in the comfort of one of the world's finest hotels.

It is the Second Day. There is little more enjoyable than a beachside breakfast on the outside terrace of the Surf Room at the Royal Hawaiian...and for this reason, breakfast is included here every morning that you are in Honolulu. You dine under the morning sun and watch the beach slowly come to life. The Hawaiian beach boys ply to and fro while an occasional surfer is seen riding a wave toward shore. Also, part of your day's greeting will be the mourning doves that perch by your table begging to share a crumb or two...this is Hawaii.

For sightseeing this morning you board a 110 foot motor launch for a cruise to historic Pearl Harbor. You see Battleship Row, the National Shrine of the USS Arizona, Hickam Field and Ford Island. The beauty of the Oahu shoreline as seen only from the sea will be yours on the return cruise.

This afternoon is free to acquaint yourself with your hotel, its surroundings and magnificent beach. On your return to the ROYAL HAWAIIAN you may want to sun or swim on the beach at Waikiki...or if interested in shopping, your hotel is ideally located adjacent to the heart of the fashionable Kalakaua shopping district and the International Market Place. There are also many elegant shops right in the hotel...another advantage of the ROYAL HAWAIIAN.

A word about shopping....In the islands, there is one purchase almost everybody makes ... a comfortable floral print muumuu for the ladies, or an informal silk aloha shirt for the men. Everybody in the islands wears these gaily colored garments, native and tourist alike. Also popular in Hawaii are decorative articles made from unusually grained, highly-polished monkeypod wood. You will find that Waikiki offers the largest selection of stores for your island shopping spree... yet, wherever you go you will find reputable, quality shops featuring colorful island fashions and native products.

As an end to a perfect day you are invited to a dinner party... a time to get better acquainted with the other members of the tour.

Third Day—This morning the Surf Room again awaits you for breakfast any time you are ready. Later you embark on a special sightseeing tour of the island of Oahu. Your trip is designed to give you an insight into Hawaiian culture and at the same time be entertaining. The early morning drive is probably one of the most scenic on the Island. It begins by traveling through the fashionable Kahala residential district before weaving along the rugged lava rock shoreline past Hanauma Bay, Koko Head and Makapuu Point before traveling through Waimanalo, an old sugar plantation town. Luncheon is on windward Oahu before ascending to the windy cliffs of Nuuanu Pali for a magnificent view of the Kailua and Kaneohe coast. Next you wind through a corner of the Mount Tantalus Rain Forest before reaching Punchbowl, an extinct volcano crater, and the site of the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific. The remaining drive is through downtown Honolulu en route to the Royal Hawaiian. A delightful dinner and entertainment await you this evening.

You will note on page 12 that all meals on the entire tour are included except two luncheons at Waikiki where we expect you will be off and about during leisure time. The selection of dining spots is an important and integral part of any complete vacation and Tauck has chosen those that will most complement your Hawaiian holiday.

Early in the morning of the fourth day you leave the fast paced, more populous area of Honolulu for eight relaxing days in the "Neighbor Islands." Everybody enjoys Oahu and Honolulu ... but to make any Hawaiian vacation complete you must visit the Neighbor Islands. Here is the real Polynesian Hawaii where old cultures still linger...where hospitality is a custom ... where beaches remain uncluttered, their blue waters still sparkling clear. For these reasons, we have emphasized the Neighbor Islands in the itinerary to give you more time there than is normally scheduled on tours. You travel a great distance at considerable expense ... so why not take advantage of the best?

Molokai—"The Friendly Isle," one of the least populated of the Neighbor Island group, is but minutes away by air. It's almost like two islands. The western half is rolling, grazing, pineapple land while the eastern half is dense, mountainous wilderness with sheer cliffs that loom like sentinels above the sea. It's a peaceful place with a carefree relaxed way of life.

Upon arrival your drive is up to Palaau, a peaceful park where you have an exciting view of craggy cliffs plummeting downward to the surging sea.

2,000 feet below you view a tiny peninsula of sand and meadow called Kalaupapa. This spot, separated from civilization by cliffs and sea, is where the Hawaiian monarchs in the 1800's established a settlement to which they exiled sufferers of leprosy. Then an awesome, feared disease with no cure.

This is where Father Damien came to devote the remainder of his life to serving the needs of these lepers. He brought a sense of control and dignity to those banished to Kalaupapa. Today leprosy, which plagued man for centuries, is no longer a threat. The community stands ghost-like in somber memory of those forgotten people. When you see it...you understand.

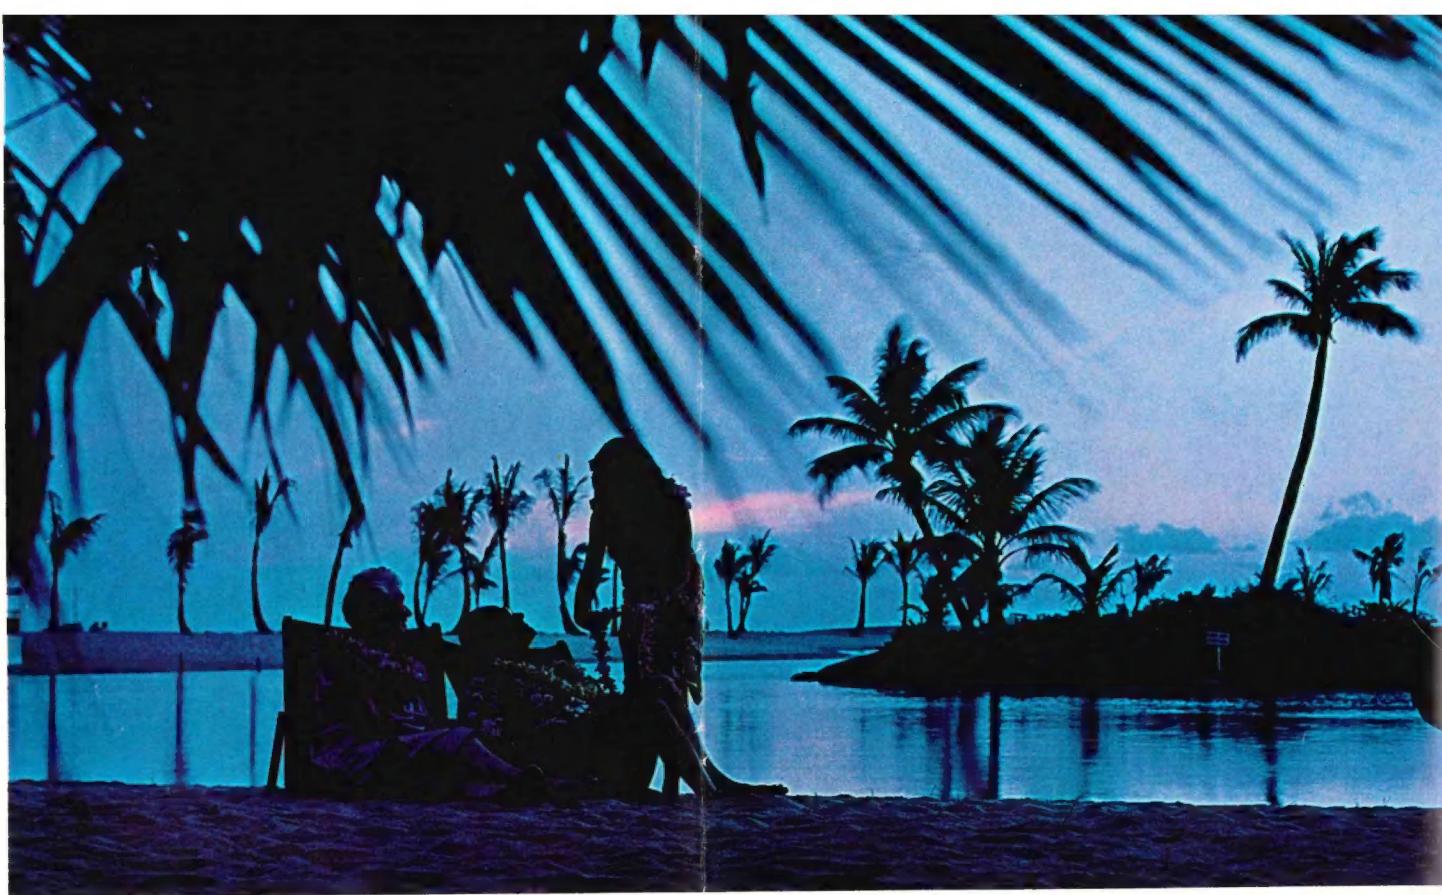

Descend from the mountains and cross the open spaces to view a part of Del Monte's pineapple plantation, and on to the SHERATON MOLOKAI for lunch, a relaxing afternoon and an evening of island tranquility at this new, rambling resort.

The "Valley Island"...Maui now awaits you on this fifth day. It is a short morning flight from Molokai to Maui. Your plane flies near giant Haleakala on the Island of Maui. This is the world's largest dormant volcano crater.

After luncheon your first sightseeing visit this afternoon is to the verdant Iao Valley peacefully hidden among towering peaks on all sides...it's the Yosemite of the Pacific. The flora and foliage are breathtaking but most spectacular is the "Iao Needle," a strange volcanic spire pointing skyward. Leaving the Valley you descend again to sea level and skirt the Pacific shore, past sugar cane fields, to the old island capital of Lahaina.

Lahaina was once the winter rendezvous of the world's whaling fleets and the bustling port of call of the square rigged brigantine merchant vessels which plied the Pacific trade routes. This town has resisted change and today its quaint old streets and shops reflect its historic past. You will want to browse the old Pioneer Hotel and visit the shop of the Maui divers to see unusual black coral which is today gathered at death defying depths off Lahaina.

In contrast to Lahaina you soon arrive at modern Kaanapali Beach...the mecca of devotees of luxurious resort living and your home for the next two nights at the famous SHERATON MAUI HOTEL.

Your entire sixth day is at leisure to enjoy the many resort facilities of the hotel. Kaanapali Beach awaits you with its crescent of sand stretching as far as the eye can see. Nearby is the championship Royal Kaanapali Golf Course designed by Robert Jones. Clubs and equipment may be rented by those who wish to play. Or perhaps you prefer to relax by the pool or try a bit of snorkeling in the crystal clear waters surrounding your hotel; whatever your choice, you are engulfed by the fun and convenience of the famed SHERATON MAUI.

On Maui your days continue beyond sunset. Witness the traditional torch-lighting ceremony followed by dinner and evenings devoted to informal Hawaiian and Polynesian entertainment...some of the finest in the islands.

The seventh day is a long but interesting day. After an early transfer to the airport, you take off from Maui and soon land in Hilo on the "Big Island" of Hawaii. The drive continues through a mountainous volcanic wonderland with its mysteriously streaming lava tubes and towering Tree Fern Forest to Hawaii Volcanoes National Park where you see the geological phenomena of the Islands' still active volcanoes...awesome but not fearsome.

After luncheon you see a black sand beach and continue your drive around the island, over the river-like lava flows which cover the lower slopes of snow-capped Mauna Loa.

In contrast to this volcanic wonderland you are soon on the palm fringed shores of tranquil Kona. Your home for the next two nights is the KONA SURF. (Sunday, Wednesday and Friday departures stay at the Kona Hilton.)

Your hotel has a variety of dining which occasionally includes an opportunity to enjoy luau type foods and see how ancient Hawaiians prepared their foods in the "Imu," an underground oven. This is followed by a Polynesian show.

Eighth Day — Enjoy a mid-morning glass-bottom boat ride around Kailua Bay to see with fascination the curious underwater coral formations and tropical marine life.

The afternoon is for leisure. Take a shopping spree downtown, swim in the hotel's fresh water pool or salt water lagoon...or perhaps try your hand at sport fishing. The Kona waters are famous for their giant Pacific blue marlin and many a world's record has been taken here. In 1965 Arthur Tauck, Jr., caught a 392 lb. marlin off this island. Many Tauck patrons have had the same rewarding experience.

Whether you choose to dine early or late, enjoy a delicious dinner followed by a stroll along the water into town. Then let the sound of the gentle rolling surf sing you to sleep.

Awake on the ninth day with the excitement of knowing you are off to Kauai...“the Garden Island.” Kauai is the fulfillment of everybody's dream of a South Sea paradise, a picture isle rich with legends that freshen one's soul, and believed by many to be the most enchanting island of them all. After a short flight, you land in Lihue and travel “off-the-beaten-path” past the Sleeping Giant of Kapaa to magnificent Hanalei Valley, the most beautiful section of all the islands. This is where they say rainbows are born and where the vistas are breathtaking in every direction. After luncheon return to Lihue and on to the SHERATON KAUAI for the next two nights, a delightful oceanfront resort.

The morning of the tenth day, for many, will be the most exciting and unforgettable day of their lives. By jet-powered helicopter you will sightsee (conditions permitting) Waimea Canyon and the cliffs and valleys of the inaccessible Na Pali Coast. Waimea Canyon is as dramatic as Grand Canyon but not quite so vast, and it is clothed from top to bottom with tropical vegetation. You pause for pictures of plunging waterfalls and see an occasional wild goat scale the steep canyon walls to flee your presence. Then Kalalau Valley will majestically unfold beneath you as you “experience” the Na Pali Coast. Then fleeting southward you will see, cradled between ancient cliffs, the Valley of the Lost Tribe. This legendary and unbelievable Na Pali Coast is virtually inaccessible except by helicopter.

To miss this would be to miss one of life's truly great thrills. A highlight of your tour. The remainder of the day is free to enjoy the beautiful white sand beach of Kauai or the pool and grounds of the hotel.

On the eleventh day, you embark on an entertaining boat ride on the palm fringed Wailua River to Kauai's famed Fern Grotto. Here, in an unmatched setting are found delicate ferns growing upside down in a volcanic cave. Silver, sunlit waterfalls cascade through the ferns as Hawaiians sing the memorable Hawaiian Wedding Song in this natural amphitheatre. Luncheon is at the Coco Palms before ending the Neighbor Island portion of your vacation with a short flight to Honolulu where you are welcomed back by your old friends at the ROYAL HAWAIIAN HOTEL.

It has been a memorable eight days in the "Neighbor Islands" yet your Hawaiian vacation is far from over. This evening you are invited to the Willows, for years a favorite restaurant noted for its warmth and Hawaiian atmosphere.

Once again relax in the luxury that only the ROYAL HAWAIIAN has to offer. We have set aside this twelfth day for your leisure to do the things that you perhaps missed during your first stay. You may want to attend the Kodak Show (seasonal) which offers free Polynesian entertainment for the photographer's delight and is just a short distance from the hotel...or visit the International Market Place just across Kalakaua Avenue where you find an interesting collection of imports from the far corners of the world...or simply enjoy the beach.

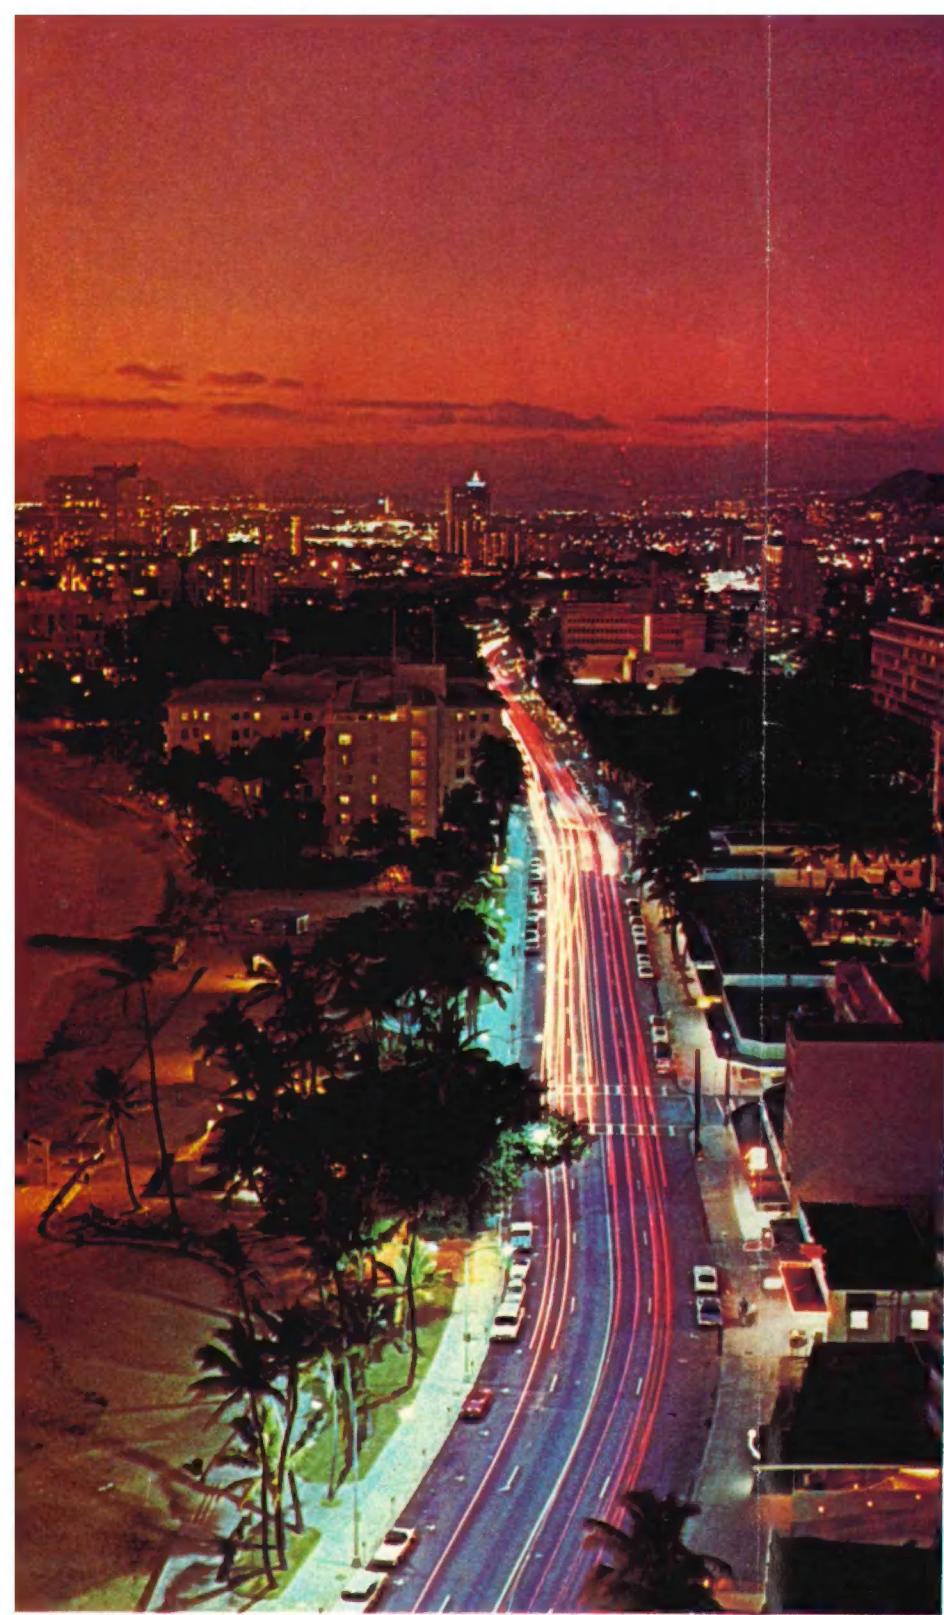

You are now a Kamaaina...“an old-timer” in the islands. You have visited the islands in the most deluxe manner possible. Therefore, to highlight your trip we invite you this evening to a farewell dinner party for a chance to mingle with your friends who shared your pleasant memories for the past two weeks.

Thirteenth Day—This is the day you bid a farewell “aloha” to these beautiful islands and a perfect vacation. You transfer to Honolulu International Airport where you board your homebound jet. (Check-out hour at Royal Hawaiian is Noon.) Some may want to stay a few more days in the islands...or perhaps visit in Los Angeles or San Francisco before continuing home. These arrangements can be made at the time of booking. No matter what you choose, leaving the islands is always heightened with the anticipation of some day returning again to this Paradise in the Pacific.

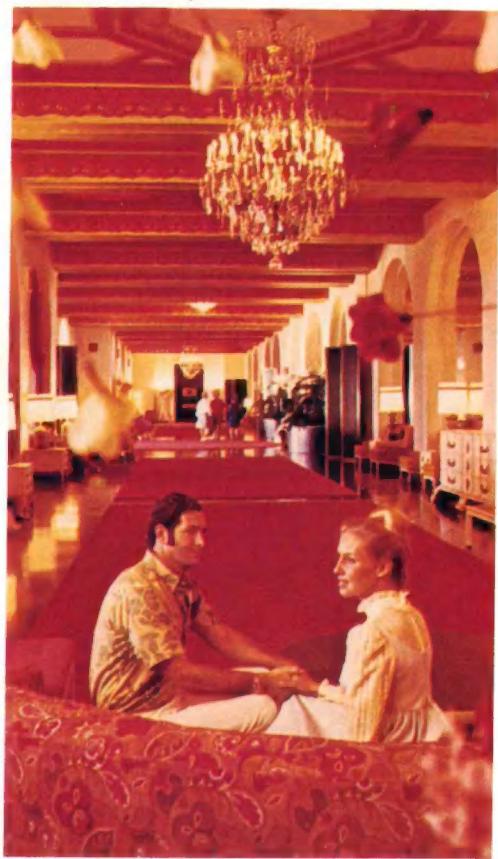

Since home cities differ, we have priced the land portion of this tour starting with dinner upon arrival in Honolulu the first day to breakfast before departure the thirteenth day. To this, you should add the round trip air transportation from your home city to Honolulu. (See “How to Reach Hawaii,” Page 14.)

The PRICE PER PERSON: Honolulu to Honolulu, (without round trip air fare from the mainland) $1499 twin, $1931 single, $1410 triple (twin with rollaway). The price includes all taxes, service charges, rooms with bath, 33 meals (3 meals every day from the time the tour begins until it ends as explained above except for 2 luncheons in Waikiki), all transfer and motor transportation, sightseeing, all admissions, all dinner show entertainment as outlined in the itinerary...even all necessary tips, i.e. doorman, maids, all waitresses, all sightseeing drivers and bellmen for handling two suitcases per person ($8.00 per bag is payable to the tour director to cover tips for additional baggage handled by bellmen. There is no charge for overnight cases which you may carry personally.) Also included is air fare for five flights between the Islands of Oahu, Molokai, Maui, Hawaii and Kauai. This is important when comparing prices to other tours which do not include the air fare between the Outer Islands in the basic price.

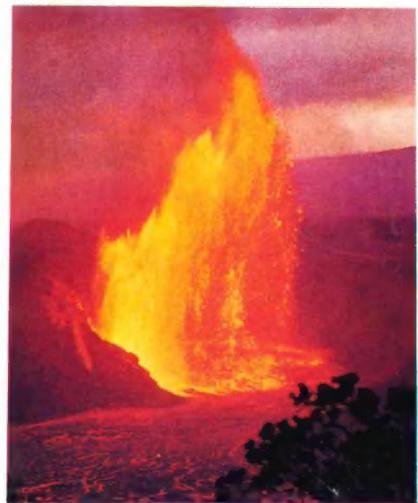

The land portion of this tour includes absolutely everything in the Islands except the two luncheons outlined above and gratuity for tour escort—see General Information. Please note there will be no expensive “options” or “extras” sold on this tour. Everything to see and do is included. It pays to compare this important feature.

How to Reach Hawaii

The Hawaiian Islands are located in the Mid-Pacific... but, bear in mind... it is further from New York to Hawaii than it is from New York to Leningrad, Russia... or Algeria, Africa. But, now with the new, long range jets you can fly to Hawaii at very reasonable rates in a matter of hours from most major cities in the U.S.

To enable you to take advantage of this convenience and flexibility, our tour director will meet you in Honolulu rather than at some other assembly point on the mainland. Your travel agent or Tauck Tours will be happy to assist you in selecting the best flight to meet your schedule. Tauck Tours has some blocked space available via American Airlines from New York to Honolulu. We also have some blocked space from Los Angeles to Honolulu which can be used in connection with flights from other cities to Los Angeles.

A LESSON IN HAWAIIAN FOR MALIHINIS*

Have you had difficulty reading and pronouncing the Hawaiian words in the itinerary? Most people do...but not for long. Hawaiian words have a musical ring and actually are quite simple. All vowels are pronounced. The Hawaiian alphabet is simple too. It has but twelve letters...five vowels and seven consonants. Can you name them? Here is a list of frequently used Hawaiian words to get you started. Now, re-read the itinerary and see how much better you do. Proceed and have fun in Hawaiian!

aloha (ah-low'-ha) — hello, goodbye

mahalo (mah-ha'-low) — thank you

kane (kah'nee) — man

Haleakala (Hah'-lee-ah-kah-lah) — a big mountain on Maui

kamaainas (kah-ma-eye'-nas) — old timers

luau (loo'-ow) — feast

muumuu (moo-moo) — colorful print dress

Kaha one (kah'-ha-oh-nee) — sand beach

malihini (mah-la-hee'-nee) — visitor, newcomer

General Information

PERSONALLY ESCORTED — Each party is escorted by a competent highly-trained Tauck Tour director. The same director will be with the tour through its entirety in the islands. Groups generally number 35-44 persons.

ROOM ACCOMMODATIONS IN HAWAII — Throughout this tour you will be roomed in the finest accommodations available. In Honolulu your rooms are ocean front at the Royal Hawaiian and in the Neighbor Islands your rooms are all in ocean front hotels. You have traveled a great distance to reach Hawaii...therefore we feel you should have the advantage of having "the best." The cost to you is but a few dollars more per night, but this is rewarded with the most enjoyable vacation possible.

THE BEST TIME TO GO TO HAWAII is "anytime" in the temperate climate of this string-of-pearls in the Pacific. The temperature averages 75 degrees all year. An average "high" of 83 degrees is reached in August. Winters are nearly as mild with an average "low" of 63 degrees, and sunny weather is found the year round. February, summer and fall are usually the most crowded. The best time for no crowds is November and early December.

CLOTHING — Informality is the keynote. Women will want to concentrate on pastel to vibrant-hued casuals for their aloha vacation. Sun dresses, sports ensembles and bathing suits are the essentials. Sun hats and floral print muumuu's come in handy but are bargains best saved for an island shopping spree. Cocktail dresses for luxury dining are wise to include as are light wraps for evening. Men packing Pacific style will want to include slacks, sun-colored sport shirts, shorts and bathing trunks. Coats and ties are sometimes customary in hotels, yet "aloha sport shirts" and slacks are always acceptable. A must for both men and women is sunglasses and comfortable walking shoes. Formal wear should be left at home. Remember...the wise traveler travels light...don't over pack. Leave some room for the purchase of Hawaiian fashions.

BAGGAGE — Although every effort is made to handle passengers' luggage as carefully as possible, we cannot be responsible, assume liability or accept claims for loss or damage to luggage due to breakage, theft, hotel or carrier handling, fair wear and tear, etc. It is important for your own self-interest and protection that you make certain you have adequate insurance to cover these eventualities. Please be sure to check with your insurance agent or travel agent for additional insurance to cover all risks concerned for the duration of your trip. Baggage, accident and flight insurance is available at small additional costs. We urge the use of sturdy, latch-type luggage for group handling in lieu of cloth/vinyl zipper bags which are more apt to break down through use.

GRATUITIES Not Included: The Customary gratuity to guides, escorts, drivers, etc. is not included. Such gratuities should be extended on a voluntary, individual basis and not as a group. Included: All necessary tips — Bellmen, Doormen and dining room tips for meals included in the itinerary.

MEMBERSHIP — Tour membership will be granted to all persons. Any person who cannot travel independently or who needs any form of assistance must be accompanied by a companion who will be able to assist this person. Tauck Tours reserves the right to terminate the tour of any persons who are objectionable to other passengers or who disrupt the operation of the tour.

SMOKING ON SIGHTSEEING COACHES — Satisfying everyone becomes almost an unsolvable problem. The closest we can come is to adopt a policy of no smoking, but...should one's craving become unbearable, we try to be tolerant and we ask other passengers to be tolerant as well. At the same time, we ask the other smokers to resist the impulse to light up. The tour escorts have the authority to ask for "no smoking" if, in their judgment, smoking becomes excessive.

SINGLE TRAVELERS — Single travelers who wish to share a twin room with another tour member will be booked on a "Single — share if possible" basis. The single rate is charged initially. If we find a suitable roommate also requesting to "share" the difference between the single and twin rate will be refunded two weeks after completion of the tour.

TO MAKE A BOOKING — Phone or write with full first and last names and whether Mr., Mrs., Miss, Ms., etc. Also advise address or hometown of all persons. We will give a "Deposit Option Date" up to which time space is held tentatively.

DEPOSIT DATE — To hold space permanently a $100 per person deposit must be received by the "Deposit Option Date" or space is subject to automatic release. Written confirmation will be sent only upon receipt of deposit at Tauck's office.

FINAL PAYMENT — Final payment is due at Tauck's office 30 days before departure.

CANCELLATIONS, TRANSFERS AND REFUNDS — Regardless of reason, cancellations and transfers result in a costly process of letters, toll calls, record adjustments, refund checks, etc. plus a loss if time does not permit re-sale. To offset these expenses, the following assessments will apply. In fairness to others we cannot make exceptions.

- $20 per booking per tour if notice is received in our Westport office between 60-21 days before departure.
- $30 per person per tour if notice is received in our Westport office less than 21 days before departure.

This assessment applies whether or not a person transfers to or is re-booked on another tour. The booking agent is entitled to half of this assessment. We are happy to refund any unused portion of a tour based upon the number of overnights missed less a charge of $8 per day for unused motor transportation and other administrative expenses if the unused portion exceeds 24 consecutive hours.
